Flying Monkey was conjured out of experimentation and curiosity. When you have numerous exceptional coffees at your fingertips, you cannot help but play with the possibilities. Flying Monkey is a striking blend with a lot of versatility. Much like its fictional counterparts, it is incredibly adaptable and can be enjoyed in almost every setting. Whether you are looking for a straight shot or something that will pair well with a milkier beverage, Flying Monkey is sure to please.

This espresso is extremely balanced, but playful, ranging from a deep cocoa and cardamom body to a candied, clementine sweetness. The components marry together to create a beautiful harmony of flavors while still having enough depth to play nicely with milk.

As a starting point for extraction, we use a dose of approximately 20 grams with an extraction time of 24-27 seconds for a double shot.
